Thank You All For Your Incredible Support With Mason's Dream Room Makeover!

A Note From Dylan's Family...

To Rooms of Hope...

As Shelley may have told you, Dylan has been battling leukemia since last July. Unfortunately, Dylan relapsed in April, during the middle of frontline treatment. This early relapse indicated a need for a bone marrow transplant, in order to give Dylan the best chance at survival. We just spent 5 weeks in the hospital for his transplant, and literally arrived home 2 days before the Rooms of Hope makeover! He is doing well, and although we still have a long road ahead of us, we are very hopeful.

Due to Dylan's strict isolation guidelines and his compromised immune system, we were unable to have all of you present for the Reveal. We are so sorry! We would have loved for all of you to not only see the finished product, but to be able to witness the excitement and joy of our three boys when they saw their rooms. I know that the "Reveal Party" must be the most rewarding part for all of you! I hope you are able to see their excitement when you see the pictures that Sherry took. They absolutely LOVE their rooms and we are beyond amazed by the talent and creativity put into every detail. A HUGE thank you to their designers: Jill, Anne and

Kelly. You did an AMAZING job of capturing their personalities, as well as their interests. A HUGE thank you to all who worked tirelessly to help create their dream rooms. Every bit of hard work from each and every one of you is so appreciated. Lastly, a HUGE thank you to Shelley, who helped make this possible for us. Shelley called to tell me about their makeovers the day after we found out about Dylan's relapse. Her timing couldn't have been more perfect...at a time when we needed some sort of joy, Rooms of Hope was there to lift our spirits! I will never forget my conversation with Shelley and my tears of joy when I found out what you were willing to do for Dylan and his brothers.

Rooms of Hope gave my boys something to look forward to, during our toughest times. We will be eternally grateful for the impact you made on our lives, and the boys will cherish their rooms for years to come. Thank you for providing them a space to retreat, and a space for Dylan to heal as he recovers from his transplant. You are an amazing group of people! We appreciate ALL of you, from the bottom of our hearts.
